Report Back from the National Organizing Conference

The Party held our bi-annual National Organizing Conference (NOC) virtually this summer on August 6-7th. Topics included discussions on local organizing, police and prison abolition, our multi-tendency structure, ballot access, electoral campaigns and much more.

The NOC happens every summer on non-convention years, with our first NOC held in 2001.

Special thanks to all the webinar organizers and speakers. Look for some of the workshop videos on our Youtube page in early September.

More Webinars Planned

Webinars and web meetings have been one way for members to remain in contact with each other nationally and for working groups and commissions to reach out to new members. The Ecosocialist and Labor Working Groups recently held a webinar on "Global Warming and its Impacts on Labor: Expectations, Planning and Response to a Capitalist Climate Crisis" with an incredible slate of speakers, and we hope to have more webinar lined up soon.

Check out our calendar or events on the national website at SocialistParty-USA.org
